

Cartoon analysis #1

1. Which election is depicted in this cartoon?
2. Name the three candidates.
3. Who is running up and why is he depicted with a stick?
4. What sport are they playing?
5. The flag shows that the winning hole is what?
6. Who won this election?

Cartoon Analysis #2

1. Who are the figures depicted in the cartoon?
2. Why did the artist choose the person represented by the ghost?
3. In 1912 was there a restriction on the number of terms a president could serve?
4. Should there be term limits for presidents? Why or why not?

Answers

Cartoon #1

1. 1912
2. William Taft, Woodrow Wilson, Theodore Roosevelt
3. Roosevelt was known for quoting "Speak softly and carry a big stick" when it came to his foreign policy.
4. Golf
5. The White House
6. Wilson

Cartoon #2

1. Theodore Roosevelt and George Washington
2. After two terms, Washington did not run for a third term which set a precedent for all successive presidents.
3. No, that did not occur until FDR served four terms; with the 22nd amendment.
4. Answers will vary.